TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 31, 1863

BY TELEGRAPH —The great length of our dispatches this morning, necessarily excludes all editorial comment Our readers will prefer to judge of the items for themselves though there is much confusion and obscurity in them.

City Election.

PORTLAND, March 30 1863

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The election of city officers is required by the charter to take place on the first Monday in April, and it is the duty of the Council "to give at least ten day's public notice of such election and designate the place for holding the same, and in said notice to nominate and appoint inspectors of election" The present Council has failed to give any such notice, and it is feared that its members expect, by their own neglect, to defeat an election and thus by holding over, continue their imbecile existence another year Is there no way to avoid this?

Yours, &c.,

VOTER

We do not believe that it is possible for the Council to defeat an election in the manner suggested by our correspondent If so, they may retain their offices for life Though it was clearly their duty to provide for an election, yet if they have not done so, it is perfectly competent for the citizens, at the usual places of voting, to choose inspectors, and then proceed to the election of the proper officers. We presume that this will be done, and that such an election will be as valid as any could be.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE CUMBERLAND,
Murfreesboro, February 2d, 1863

The General Commanding presents his sincere acknowledgments to the friends of the soldiers of this army, whose generous sympathy with the suffering of the sick and wounded has induced them to send for their comfort numerous sanitary supplies, which are continually arriving by the hands of individuals and charitable societies. While he highly appreciates and does not undervalue the charities which have been lavished on this army, experience has demonstrated the importance of system and impartiality, as well as judgment and economy, in the forwarding and distribution of these supplies.

In all these respects the United States Sanitary Commission stands unrivaled. Its organization, experience and large facilities for the work are such, that the General does not hesitate to recommend, in the most urgent manner, all those who desire to send sanitary supplies to confide them to the care of this Commission. They will thus insure the supplies reaching their destination without wastage or expense of transportation, and their being distributed in a judicious manner, without disorder or interference with the regulations and usages of the service.

This Commission acts in full concert with the Medical Department of the army, and enjoys its confidence. It is thus enabled, with few agents, to do a large amount of good at the proper time and in the proper way Ever since the battle of Stone's River it has distributed a surprisingly large amount of clothing lint, bandages and bedding, as well as milk concentrated beef, fruit and other sanitary stores essential to the recovery of the sick and wounded.

W S. ROSECRANS,
Major General Commanding Department

THE CONSCRIPTION BILL.—We find the following allusion to the action of the Oregon Senators, upon the bill which compels all to "fight, pay or emigrate," in an exchange paper:

The discussion upon this measure in the Senate last night was of great interest, and was conducted in a manner which showed an admirable temper on the part of the conservative branch of Congress As I have alluded heretofore to the doubtful and unfortunate position of some of our Pacific Senators upon many measures of great national importance, it is gratifying to be able to say that the votes and influence of the Oregon Senators and of Senator McDougall were heartily for the bill To be sure, there was no opposition to the main question, but the last named Senator went further, and in reply to a statement that the provision of the bill which ignored the State right to claim certain exemptions would bring on a revolution, said "If there is to be a revolution in the North, let it come now I have heard a great deal of talk about a revolution in the North, if it is coming, let it come; we are ready to meet it, but I shall entirely disagree with the honorable Senator from Minnesota (Mr. Rice), and do not believe that it will come" While an amendment to exempt from the effect of the conscription all members of Congress was under discussion, Mr Nesmith said, that he thought that if the soldiers were willing to submit to associating with Congressmen, the people ought not to complain, and judging from the service of some members of Congress—present company excepted—he thought that they would be able to steal Richmond, or capture the Southern Confederacy if it was left out over night —Whereat the grave Senators laughed. Nesmith is funny

THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION —The San Jose Mercury says that it asked a secessionist the other day what objections he had to the President's proclamation "Oh," said he, "it is useless it will never reach the niggers will stir them up to insurrection, can't operate only where the army goes, won't operate there because the niggers will not run away, is unconstitutional robs the rebels; will fill the free States with worthless blacks that will drive white folks out, will oblige white girls to marry niggers "—in fact he went on till we thought of the man who said he had the jaundice, dyspepsia, consumption, small pox, gout and rheumatism, and was unwell besides.

Letter from Boise River

[FROM AN OCCASIONAL CORRESPONDENT]

PLACERVILLE March 12, 1863

Captain Standifer's company, much to our surprise, made their triumphant entry into our town yesterday afternoon, amid the prolonged cheering of the citizens Their trip has been eminently successful they having succeeded in capturing a considerable quantity of booty, and placing hors de combat a number of the Indians They have brought in fifteen scalps and are certain that many more were killed or mortally wounded This company found the Indians in considerable force, and at one point they were regularly fortified, having no less than fifteen rifle pits, which a spirited attack demonstrated to be impregnable, and no maneuvering could tempt the Indians to come out to give battle The horses, furs and traps which were captured were sold at auction, on Snake river, for the sum of $900, which about paid the grub expenses of the company They would not have returned so soon but for want of grub But two men were wounded in the excursion; one shot himself in the arm, and the other was shot by the Indians, the ball entering the mouth on the right side and passing back and downwards, lodging in the nape of the neck, both are doing well and will recover The big chief, who was dressed in as luxurious a manner as could be imagined with buck skin and feathers, was killed, and his dress complete, has been now transferred to the chief of the Bostons, who wears his trophies modestly, slightly augmenting their effect by the addition of the defunct chief's scalp and quiver all full of arrows This chief is represented as having made a desperate fight. The cap which he wore was knocked off his head five different times and as often did he replace it—keeping his pipe in his mouth all the while The Indian who killed Grimes was killed in this affray The fight occurred at or near Salmon Falls on Snake river A call has been issued for the citizens to meet on Sunday next, for the purpose of raising an outfit for another expedition, which is expected to be fruitful of great results I will write you the full account of this affair as soon as I can get hold of the items Just now the victors are too merry to give the full details

J C Hill was killed on Ophir creek, yesterday afternoon, by the caving of a bank.—He was originally from Massachusetts, and came to this place from Placerville, Cal.

The coldest night of the season was one night this week, the thermometer indicating seven degrees below zero

CRAYON.

THE DOUGH FACES —Mr. Barstow, of Sacramento, in the debate in the Assembly, on the Testimony bills, thus portrays the Northern dough-face

Sir, these are men to whom I can pardon much on the score of early impressions and early education. For the honest planter of the South, who owns his slaves, pays his debts, and believes in the divinity of slavery, I have a feeling of respect. But when I look around me, and behold the cringing menials and fawning vassals of the slave power, who were born at the North, and who still dream that the line of political promotion lies in the direction of some new wrong done to the African, then I begin to think, with Hamlet, that "some of nature's journeymen have made men and not made them well, they imitate humanity so abominably"

Traitors to the land of their birth, traitors to the noble principles which they inherited and to the free institutions under which they grew up, cowards at heart, fit only to be slaves themselves and tremble under the lash of a task master, I entertain for them no other feeling than that of loathing and disgust When the Southern planter stands before me, in the integrity of his mistaken opinions, I feel that I have a man to deal with, and there is hope in the case But when the Northern dough-face stands before me in all the meanness of recreancy I feel that human degradation has reached its lowest point in him and instinctively I clap my hand upon my pocket book.

PULPIT ZEAL —No man was ever scolded out of his sins The heart, corrupt as it is, and because it is so, grows angry if it be not treated with some management and good manners scolds back again A surly mastiff will bear perhaps to be stroked, though he will growl even under this operation but if you touch him roughly he will bite There is no grace that the spirit of self can counterfeit with more success than a religious zeal A man thinks he is fighting for Christ, and he is fighting for his own notions He thinks he is skilfully searching the hearts of others, when he is only gratifying the malignity of his own and charitably supposes his hearers destitute of all grace that he may shine the more in his own eyes by comparison When he has performed this notable task he wonders that they are not converted, he has given it to them soundly, and if they do not tremble and confess that God is in him of truth, he gives them up as reprobates incorrigible, and lost forever But a man that loves me if he sees me in an error will pity me and endeavor calmly to convince me of it, and persuade me to forsake it If he has great and good news to tell me, he will not do it angrily, and in much heat and discomposure of spirit It is not, therefore, easy to conceive on what ground a minister can justify a conduct which proves that he does not understand his errand The absurdity of it would certainly strike him, if he were not himself deluded.—Cowper

The Mean Man

'I've known some very mean men in my time There was Deacon Overreach, now he was mean, he always carried a hen in his gig box when he travelled to pick up the oats his horse wasted in the manger, and lay an egg for his breakfast in the morning And then there was Hugo Himmelman, who made his wife dig potatoes to pay for the marriage license" "Lawyers," he continued, addressing himself to Barclay, "I must tell you that story of Hugo, for it's not a bad one and good stories, like potatoes, ain't as plenty as they used to be when I was a boy. Hugo is a neighbor of mine though considerably older than I be, and a mean neighbor he is, too Well, when he was going to get married to Gretchen Kolp, he goes down to Parson Rogers, at Digby, to get a license

'Parson,' says he, 'what's the price of a license?'

'Six dollars,' says he.

'Six dollars' says Hugo, 'that's a dreadful sight of money Couldn't you take no less?'

'No,' says he, 'that's what they cost me to the Secretary's office, at Halifax'

'Well, how much do they ax for publishing in Church, then?'

'Nothing,' says the parson

'Well,' says Hugo, 'that's so cheap I can't expect to give no change back I think I'll be published. How long does it take?'

'Three Sundays'

'Three Sundays!' says Hugo. Well, that's a long time, too But three Sundays are only a fortnight, after all; two for the covers and one for the inside, like, and six dollars is a great sum of money for a poor man to throw away. I must wait'

So off he went jogging toward home, and looking about as mean as a new sheared sheep, when all at once a bright thought came into his head, and back he went, as hard as his horse could carry him.

'Parson,' says he, 'I've changed my mind. Here's the six dollars I'll tie the knot to-night with my tongue, that I can't undo with my teeth.'

'Why, what in nature is the meaning of all this?' says the parson.

'Why,' says Hugo, 'I've been ciphering it out in my head, and it's cheaper than publishing bans, after all. You see, sir, it's potato-digging time, if I wait to be called in Church, her father will have her work for nothing, and, as hands are scarce and wages high, if I marry her to-night, she can begin to dig our own to-morrow, and that will pay for the license, and just seven shillings over, for there ain't a man in all Clements that can dig and carry as many bushels in a day as Gretchen can. And, besides, fresh wives, like fresh servants, work like smoke at first, but they get saucy and lazy after awhile.'"

"Oh, my;" said Miss Lucy, "did you ever hear the beat of that? Well, I never."

LETTER FROM A DEMOCRAT TO A COPPERHEAD MEETING.—Col. T. Lyle Dickey, in the army at Memphis, wrote a letter to the Copperhead "peace meeting" at Belleville, from which this is an extract:

I ask you to say, in my behalf, to the Democracy of your county, that, in my humble judgment, our suffering and beloved country, at this time perhaps more than ever before, demands the exercise of their wisdom, energy, firmness, moderation and forbearance Let them see to it that they do not permit them selves to be provoked to do any wrong by the wickedness and folly of others.

Our Government is assailed by a most wicked and formidable rebellion in the South. Ambitious and designing leaders were enabled to set on foot and, so far, to sustain this rebellion. * * * Let the conservative masses of the Democracy, inviting the co-operation of conservative men of every party, aid and support our armies in the overpowering of the military force of the rebels, not maliciously, but energetically, ever preserving that spirit of fraternity which will enable us to live in harmony with the people of the South when the rebellion shall have been put down. * * * * A few designing men in your midst, who really sympathize with the present wicked rebellion, would inflame your passions and thus lead you to aid the rebellion by withholding from the Federal Government your proper support and subordination. Let them not succeed. They are merely co-operators with the radicals in sapping the foundations of our Federal Government. Shut your ears against all appeals to sectional prejudices, whether directed against New England or South Carolina. Mark that man as dangerous to his country, who would teach you to hate any section of our great country, whether that section be the South or the East.

Col. Dickey is an old and influential Democratic politician in Illinois, and was a candidate for Congress at the last election He is unwilling to go the length of factious opposition to the Government which so many of his party and their representatives in the Legislature have advised. His course and that of other conscientious and reflecting Democrats will do much towards checking the headway the peace party have been making in that State and causing a re action against them.

THE ONLY QUESTION.—There is really but one political issue before the American people—and that an issue which was never fairly presented until 1860—"The integrity or dissolution of the American Republic." This issue, so tremendous and overwhelming in the mode of its discussion, throws all bygone partisan questions and contentions into shade, if not into oblivion. Between the positions, taken by the contestants in this terrible discussion, there can exist no intermediate ground on which a third or compromise party can find standing room. The democrats may flatter themselves that they are equally opposed to the abolitionists of the North and the seceders of the South, but they will find them selves compelled to wheel into one or the other of the lines which are battling for and against the Union. The issue before us is one that cannot be decided by the old party machinery of caucuses and conventions and central committees. Its decisions have been left to the arbitrament of lead and steel and gunpowder, and ere long the verdict will be pronounced for one side or the other.—Washoe Times.

THE TOUCHSTONE OF THE TIME.—While remonstrating against the consideration of the McDougall resolutions, Senator Sumner presented a "touchstone" to the Senate, which every loyal Northman will do well to use:

"There is," said the Senator, "at the present moment one touchstone to which I am disposed to bring every question, especially in our foreign relations, and this touchstone is its influence on the suppression of the rebellion. A measure may in itself be just or expedient, but if it would be a present burden, if it would add to our embarrassments and troubles, and especially if it would aggravate our military condition, then, whatever be its merits, I am against it. To the suppression of this rebellion the country now offers life and treasure without stint, and it expects that these energies shall not be sacrificed or impaired, by the assumption of any added responsibilities."

AYER'S Catharti Pills,

(SUGAR COATED)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1 1855.

DR J C AYER Sir I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing Yours with great respect,

ED W PREBLE Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR WASHINGTON D C, 7 Feb, 1856.

SIR I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them Fraternally yours,

ALONZO BALL, M D, Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND LIV CO MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR AYER Your Pills are the perfection of medicine They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months Went off to be doctored at great expense but got no better She then commenced taking your Pills which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills and lost much time without being cured entirely even then Such a medicine as yours which is actually good and honest will be prized here GEO J GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev J V Himes Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR AYER I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends Yours, J V HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO, N Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood

JOHN G MEACHAM, M D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR AYER Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair After our child was cured she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her

From the Rev Dr Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH GA., Jan 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism Notwithstanding I had the best physicians the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr Mackenzie, I tried your Pills Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
